IMPORTANT SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS

CHILD SAFETY:

It Makes A Difference How and Where You Use Your Flat Panel Display

Congratulations on your purchase! As you enjoy your new product, please keep these safety tips in mind:

THE ISSUE

- The home theater entertainment experience is a growing trend and larger flat panel displays are popular purchases. However, flat panel displays are not always supported on the proper stands or installed according to the manufacturer's recommendations.
- Flat panel displays that are inappropriately situated on dressers, bookcases, shelves, desks, speakers, chests or carts may fall over and cause injury.

THIS MANUFACTURER CARES!

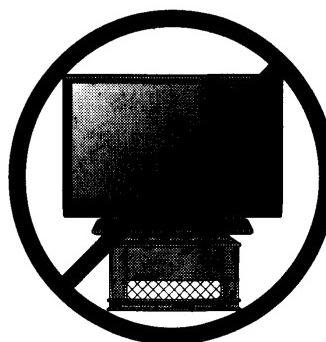

- The consumer electronics industry is committed to making home entertainment enjoyable and safe.

TUNE INTO SAFETY

- One size does NOT fit all. Follow the manufacturer's recommendations for the safe installation and use of your flat panel display.
- Carefully read and understand all enclosed instructions for proper use of this product.
- Don't allow children to climb on or play with furniture and television sets.
- Don't place flat panel displays on furniture that can easily be used as steps, such as a chest of drawers.
- Remember that children can become excited while watching a program, especially on a "larger than life" flat panel display. Care should be taken to place or install the display where it cannot be pushed, pulled over, or knocked down.
- Care should be taken to route all cords and cables connected to the flat panel display so that they cannot be pulled or grabbed by curious children.

WALL MOUNTING: IF YOU DECIDE TO WALL MOUNT YOUR FLAT PANEL DISPLAY, ALWAYS:

- Use a mount that has been recommended by the display manufacturer and/or listed by an independent laboratory (such as UL, CSA, ETL).
- Follow all instructions supplied by the display and wall mount manufacturers.
- If you have any doubts about your ability to safely install your flat panel display, contact your retailer about professional installation.
- Make sure that the wall where you are mounting the display is appropriate. Some wall mounts are not designed to be mounted to walls with steel studs or old cinder block construction. If you are unsure, contact a professional installer.
- A minimum of two people are required for installation. Flat panel displays can be heavy.

Experiencing HD images

An HDTV without an HD source is just an ordinary TV. To enjoy HD images on the TV, you should get HD programming from the following:

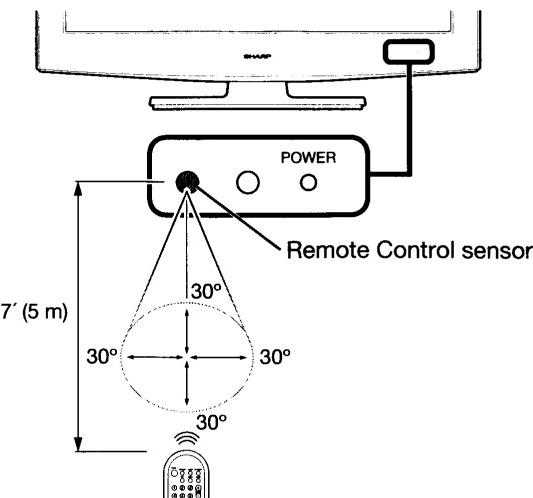

- Over-the-air broadcasting via HD quality antenna
- HD cable/satellite subscription
- HD compatible external equipment

NOTE

- For information on updating to HD programming, ask your cable/satellite service provider.

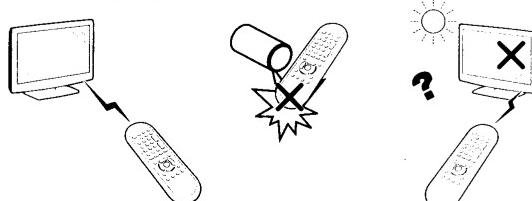

Using the Remote Control Unit

Use the remote control unit by pointing it towards the remote control sensor on the TV. Objects between the remote control unit and the remote control sensor may prevent proper operation.

■ Cautions regarding the remote control unit

- Do not expose the remote control unit to shock. In addition, do not expose the remote control unit to liquids, and do not place in an area with high humidity.
- Do not install or place the remote control unit under direct sunlight. The heat may cause deformation of the remote control unit.
- The remote control unit may not work properly if the remote control sensor on the TV is under direct sunlight or strong lighting. In such cases, change the angle of the lighting or the TV, or operate the remote control unit closer to the remote control sensor.

IMPORTANT:

The POWER indicator on the television should light GREEN indicating you have power to the television.

If the POWER indicator on the television still does not light up, press POWER on the remote control to turn the power on.

Preparation

Antennas

To enjoy a clearer picture, use an outdoor antenna. The following is a brief explanation of the types of connections that are used for a coaxial cable. If your outdoor antenna uses a 75-ohm coaxial cable with an F-type connector, plug it into the antenna terminal at the rear of the TV set.

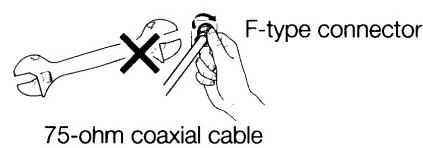

1. A 75-ohm system is generally a round cable with F-type connector that can easily be attached to a terminal without tools (Commercially available).
2. A 300-ohm system is a flat "twin-lead" cable that can be attached to a 75-ohm terminal through a 300/75-ohm adapter (Commercially available).

NOTICE F-type connector should be finger-tightened only.

When connecting the RF cable to the TV set, do not tighten F-type connector with tools.

If tools are used, it may cause damage to your TV set. (The breaking of internal circuit, etc.)

75-ohm coaxial cable

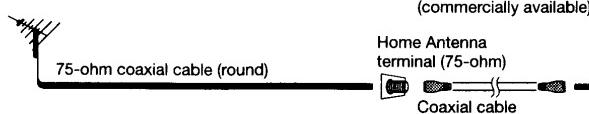

Connecting Antenna Cable

- Connect the antenna cable to the TV using one of the methods in the illustration as shown (①, ②, ③ or ④).

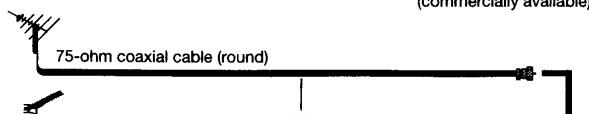

① Cable without a CATV converter

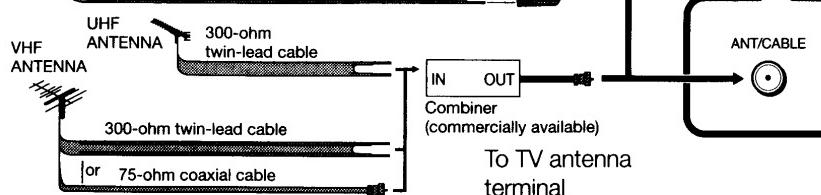

② VHF/UHF antenna

③ Combination VHF/UHF antenna

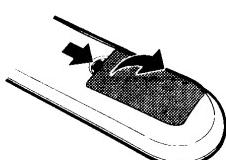

④ Separate VHF/UHF antenna

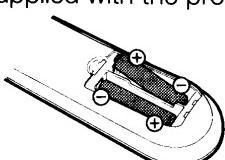

Installing Batteries in the Remote Control Unit

If the remote control fails to operate TV functions, replace the batteries in the remote control unit.

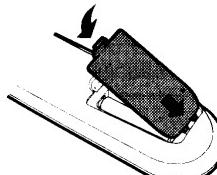

1 Open the battery cover.

2 Insert two "AA" size batteries (supplied with the product).

3 Close the battery cover.

- Place the batteries with their terminals corresponding to the (+) and (-) indications in the battery compartment.

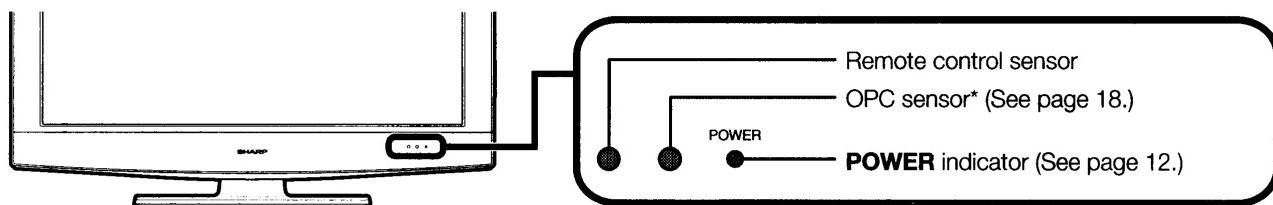

CAUTION

Improper use of batteries can result in chemical leakage or explosion. Be sure to follow the instructions below.

- Do not mix batteries of different types. Different types of batteries have different characteristics.
- Do not mix old and new batteries. Mixing old and new batteries can shorten the life of new batteries or cause chemical leakage in old batteries.
- Remove batteries as soon as they are worn out. Chemicals that leak from batteries that come in contact with skin can cause a rash. If you find any chemical leakage, wipe thoroughly with a cloth.
- The batteries supplied with this product may have a shorter life expectancy due to storage conditions.
- If you will not be using the remote control unit for an extended period of time, remove batteries from it.

⑮ Closed Captions and Digital Closed Captions

Your TV is equipped with an internal Closed Caption decoder. It allows you to view conversations, narration and sound effects as subtitles on your TV. Closed Captions are available on some TV programs and on some VHS home video tapes at the discretion of the program provider.

Digital Closed Caption service is a new caption service available only on digital TV programs (also at the discretion of the service provider). It is a more flexible system than the original Closed Caption system, because it allows for a variety of caption sizes and font styles. When the Digital Closed Caption service is in use, it will be indicated by the appearance of DTVCC.

Not all programs and VHS videotapes offer closed captions. Please look for the "CC" symbol to ensure that captions will be shown.

In the Closed Caption system, there can be more than one caption service provided. Each is identified by its own number. The "CC1" and "CC2" services display subtitles of TV programs superimposed over the program's picture.

In the Closed Caption system, the "T1 (TEXT1)" or "T2 (TEXT2)" services display text that is unrelated to the program being viewed (e.g., weather or news). These services are also superimposed over the program currently being viewed.

1 Press CC.

- This will present the Closed Caption information display.

2 Press CC while the Closed Caption information is still on the screen.

- Press repeatedly until you select the desired closed caption service.

- Regardless of whether or not an analog broadcast provides Closed Caption service, the closed caption display will toggle in the sequence: CC1, CC2, T1, and T2.

- When a digital broadcast provides Closed Caption service, the closed caption display will toggle in the sequence: DTVCC (actual service), CC1, CC2, T1, and T2. CC1, CC2, T1, and T2 are always displayed.

Example:

If a program has three services (DTVCC, CC1 and T1 (TEXT1)), the closed caption display will toggle in this sequence:

1/5 DTVCC → 2/5 CC1 → 3/5 CC2 → 4/5 T1 → 5/5 T2 → OFF

- The CC button keeps a record of the last service selected in its memory.
If the last closed caption mode (e.g. 1/5 DTVCC) you selected is not available for the next program, or on another channel, the closed caption service that is available is automatically selected.

Examples:

In a case where there are two closed caption services provided (for instance, DTVCC and CC1), and DTVCC is displayed as your current selection, if DTVCC is not broadcast for the next program, the other closed caption service, CC1, will be displayed.

NOTE

- When "Power Saving" is set to "Standard" or "Advanced", the Power Saving leaf icon appears on the channel information window. See page 19 for details of Power Saving settings.
- See page 25 for detailed closed caption settings.
- When the program contains no closed caption, "--" displays in the closed caption information. (Only when receiving a digital broadcast.)
- Four kinds of closed caption service (CC1, CC2, T1 (TEXT1), T2 (TEXT2)) are potentially available, but a broadcast may contain none or only some of these services at the discretion of the program provider.

Canadian Rating Systems (Canadian English ratings and Canadian French ratings)

- The TV rating systems in Canada are based on the Canadian Radio-Television and Telecommunications Commission (CRTC) policy on violence in television programming.
- While violence is the most important content element to be rated, the structure developed takes into consideration other program content like language, nudity, sexuality and mature themes.
- When setting the V-CHIP on the Canadian system you can choose either the Canadian English ratings or the Canadian French ratings.
